

Camp Woodie Nurse Job Description

Position: Seasonal Camp Nurse - Camp Woodie

Reports to: Camp Director; Camp Assistant Director

Location: South Carolina Waterfowl Association Camp Woodie 8444 Old River Road, Pinewood, SC 29125

Approximate Dates of Employment: May 16-August 13, 2021

Major Responsibilities:

- Provide oversight and administration of health care needs for campers and staff.
- Maintain necessary medical supplies, as well as first aid kits for each cabin and program area.
- Provide proper care for ill and injured campers/staff, as well as any special medical accommodations
- Review all campers' health forms and create weekly Cabin Medical lists for counselors
- Receive all campers' medications at check-in and inquire about medical history/allergies
- Dispense camper medications at appropriate times and keep a detailed log
- Complete appropriate incident reports and follow up
- On-call 24 hours for any camper/staff medical needs –stay on site while camp is in session.
- Help role model and foster a culture of safety at Camp Woodie and continue to evaluate the safety of all camp programs and activities, make recommendations to leadership.

Qualifications:

- Must be 19 years old with high school diploma or equivalent, as well as EMT, LPN, or RN certification, including current CPR and First Aid Certifications.
- Able to observe camper behaviors and assess its appropriateness and apply appropriate management techniques, as well as enforce appropriate safety and emergency procedures to the situation
- Must be able to assist campers in the event of an emergency (fire, evacuation, illness, or injury)

How to Apply:

Apply online or send a job application to campwoodie@scwa.org or contact:

Steve Maynard

Camp Director - Camp Woodie

steve@scwa.org

803-460-8525